Cease and Desist: Interim measure placed upon certain aspects of chapter operations when there is an immediate threat or ongoing investigation.

Disciplinary Probation: A student organization may be placed on disciplinary probation for a specified period of time under conditions stated in writing. Probation includes a warning that any violation of the conditions, or any further acts of misconduct, will result in additional sanctions, which may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

(*) Reflects an extension of an existing probation after a second incident

Social Restrictions prohibits the student organization from participating in or hosting specific events or types of events for a period of time. This may include events closed to the organization, events with other student organizations, events that include alcohol, events that do not include alcohol, and events both on and off campus.

Campus Restrictions prohibit student organizations from participating in some, or all, university events and privileges for a period of time. Events include, but are not limited to, Homecoming and Little 500. University privileges may include, but are not limited to, use of space, access to university resources, removal of check listing benefits, and academic reporting.

Deferred Suspension: Organization suspension from Indiana University - Bloomington may be deferred for a period of time, on the condition that a lesser sanction(s) be completed or is otherwise implemented within that period of time. If the lesser Sanction(s) is not completed in the time period assigned, or if not upheld, the deferred suspension will automatically go into effect, and the student organization will have no further opportunity to appeal the deferred suspension. Further, if the organization is found responsible for any other policy violations during the time of the deferred suspension, the will be immediately suspended from Indiana University - Bloomington.

Suspension: Organizational suspension from Indiana University means the student organization will cease and desist all activities and disband. The length of a suspension will be proposed by the Administrative Conference Panel and will be decided by the Dean of Students.

Expulsion: Organization expulsion from Indiana University-Bloomington means the student organization will cease all activities and will be permanently banned from Indiana University-Bloomington. Expelled organizations cannot utilize university space for gathering purposes or participate in University activities.

Student organizations are responsible for abiding by University policy, the IU Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct ("Student Code"), and all other agreements between the university and the student organization.
